Richard Boyd and Auther Culpepper share some insight on the truth according to God as to what a man really is and how we as men can be proud of the purpose to which God made us.

The Hebrew word for man is Ish when interpreted it means "man," just as Isha is the Hebrew word for woman taken from man. The definition of Ish is one that is created in the image of God. Genesis 1:27 God created mankind in his image, in the image of God he created them; male and female he created both.

Because of man's fallen nature and rebellion against God, he has become preoccupied looking for an identity in other men. The image of fallen man can be likened to a motor vehicle that has been in an accident. Total loss to the point beyond recognition. Because man fell to sin, it took away his understanding that God created him in and by God's authority.

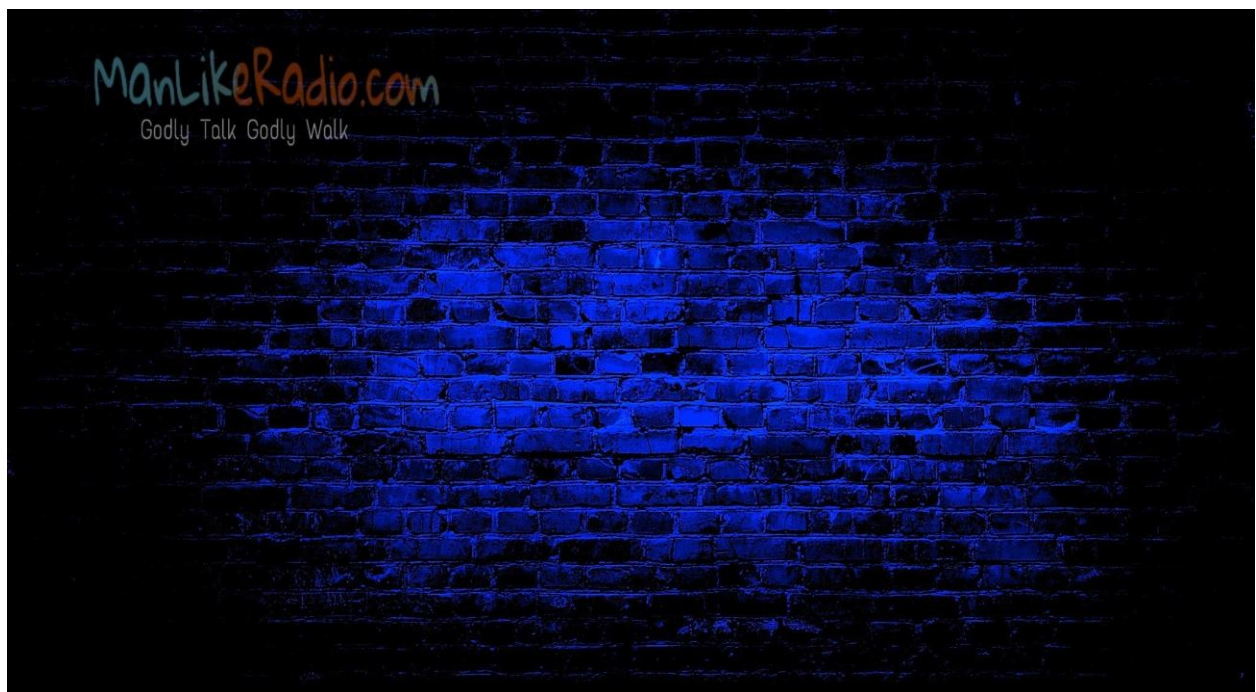

The foundation of man's beginning is that as Ish he is the representation of God upon the earth. When God designed man, he had already placed the woman within him. As long as Adam operated in the authority given to him by God, He was able to fulfill all that he was designed to be.

Genesis 2: 21 The Lord God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man's ribs from his side and closed up the place with flesh.

Upon completing His creation, God makes a powerful statement. Genesis 1:31 God saw everything that he had made, and it was very good." All creation was good, but once man arrived on the scene, it now had become very good.

The result of the fall of man in Genesis 3, was man's disobedience by not obeying God and heeding to the voice of his wife. So we see that man chose to obey the voice of man (woman) first and no longer the voice of his creator, the only one who knew who he was designed to be.

Son Of God

When a man asks who he is? The typical response would be, "I am a Plumber, Teacher, or a Doctor, whatever profession he works in. But the proper response when asked this question should be "I am the Son of God." Why? Because all men were first created in the image of God, and like Christ we are His sons.

"Man- Ish."
